

PRIVATE SCHOOL VILLAGE

We partner with private schools to introduce the private school experience to prospective families, provide centralized support and programs for school parent affinity groups/parent programs, share resources and collaboratively work in the best interest of supporting the Black and Brown community. Private schools are annually invited to support PSV to help cover the hard and soft costs of PSV programs. This also opens the door for families to access many PSV Programs as most are only open to PSV-sponsoring schools.

WHY GET INVOLVED?

- Make an immediate difference in the experience of Black & Brown families
- Join a network of schools who understand that PSV impacts all
- Grow an understanding of the Black & Brown family experience
- Empower parent/student engagement

HOW TO GET STARTED

- Subscribe to our emails
- Follow us on Instagram, Facebook & LinkedIn @PrivateSchoolVillage and @SomosPSV
- Complete & return the PSV School Form for Partnerships found under "Join Us" on the website

YOUR INVOLVEMENT SUPPORTS

Student Well Being/Belonging

- The impact of isolation is akin to smoking 11 cigarettes a day according to the Surgeon General. Racial socialization is the antidote.

Inclusive & Equitable Communities

- Parent engagement impacts student experience (e.g. creates experiences that are equitable and inclusive)

Systemic & Institutional Policy & Process Change

- Parent education, engagement & advocacy yields awareness and creates momentum in support of the needs of our community.

OUR SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Somos PSV

Somos PSV is a sub-community of support within Private School Village for Latinx/Hispanic private school families. In 2022, Latinx/Hispanic parents and administrators formed an advisory group to begin to bring the community together. Still in its early stages, Somos PSV hosts social gatherings and conversations centered around the needs of the community. Like PSV, Somos PSV started a parent ambassador program as its inaugural program Available in Los Angeles/Pasadena.

Racial Literacy Skill Building Sessions

In partnership with credible organizations and experts, PSV provides opportunities for parents, students, and administrators to learn about racial literacy and build this powerful, life-long skill. Whether it's hearing from experts or a more practical training sessions or classes such as the Black History from a Decolonized Perspective, PSV knows that racial literacy skills are essential to thriving in private schools. Select sessions are available virtually.

Community-Wide Annual Events

From the Sneaker Soiree, the Back-to-School Picnic, the Parent2Parent Mix & Mingle, and PSV Honors to adult social gatherings, PSV creates important spaces that foster cultural pride, celebrate tradition, inform and empower stakeholders, and support a sense of belonging among the private school community. Available in select communities.

The Village Scholarship

The Village Scholarship (TVS) is a partial scholarship for outstanding elementary school private school students from low-income households. The Village Scholarship provides direct financial assistance to families that identify as underserved or from an underrepresented community. Available currently in Los Angeles/Pasadena.

All programs are available to PSV-sponsoring schools faculty, staff & administration
